

Initial Biographies of the 2008 Raytown School District Hall of Fame Class

Craig Bobzien- 1973 Graduate of Raytown South High School

- ❖ Black Hills National Forest Supervisor
- ❖ Regional Forester Leadership Award winner, 2005
- ❖ Caring for the Land and Water Award, 2007

Robert “Tom” Butterfield*- 1958 Graduate of Raytown High School

- ❖ Founder of Butterfield Boy’s Ranch and Butterfield Youth Services
- ❖ Subject of The Children Nobody Wanted, Warner Brothers film
- ❖ Honored for social work by five American Presidents

Donald W. Connelly- 1968 Graduate of Raytown South High School

- ❖ Certified Radio Marketing Expert and Radio Broadcaster
- ❖ Associate Professor at Western Carolina University
- ❖ Textbook author for McGraw-Hill

Pamela M. Kircher- 1962 Graduate of Raytown High School

- ❖ Nationally noted speaker on Near Death Experiences
- ❖ Innovator in bringing complementary therapies to conventional medical settings
- ❖ Hospice and Family Practice Physician

Charles W. Stephens, Jr.-1958 Graduate of Raytown High School

- ❖ Winningest football coach in state of Indiana from 1979-1991
- ❖ Winner of three consecutive Indiana State Championship titles
- ❖ Member of the Indiana Football and Missouri Valley Athletic Halls of Fame

Sebron “C.B.” Toney- 1983 Graduate of Raytown High School

- ❖ Deputy Principal Officer, American Consulate General, Saudi Arabia
- ❖ Former Management Officer, American Embassy, Kabul, Afghanistan
- ❖ Former Human Resources Officer in Brazil, Senegal and Iraq

posthumous induction*