Create a drawing that represents freedom. The Surrealists embraced automatic drawing as a way to incorporate randomness and the subconscious into their drawings, and to free themselves from artistic conventions and everyday thinking.	April is Jazz Appreciation Month! Choose one or more videos to learn more about different jazz musicians: Charlie Parker Duke Ellington Louis Armstrong Ella Fitzgerald Ella Fitzgerald (scat singing)	Want to play a game, but don't have equipment like at school? Check out these ideas and make your own equipment at home!
Make a mandala. Whether you use the traditional sand or draw one on your own, this meditative symbol can easily help you to loosen up.	Create a 20 second song for washing your hands or another hygienic activity.	Get energized!
Draw a comic strip. Enjoy a moment of levity with this exercise that will focus on a comical event that happened to you.	Earth Day was last week! Choose a song from the internet and learn to sing along: Colors of the Wind Big Beautiful Planet Recycle Rap Alternative: Create your own song, rap, or chant about Earth Day/recycling.	Try out a family game night with this Board Game
