

RSHS CLASS OF 1971 50TH REUNION

NEWS RELEASE

For immediate release

October 1, 2020

The Raytown South High School Class of 1971 announced their 50th reunion will be held October 1-2, 2021. All graduates are encouraged to attend and information is readily available on Facebook (Raytown South Class of 1971) or by contacting co-chairs Bob Young (youngrwmo@gmail.com) or Steve Jennings (sajennings52@yahoo.com).

The Raytown South Class of 1971 had 600 graduates, many of whom have distinguished themselves in their careers and service throughout the country. The Class of 1971 was the first class to establish a single-class scholarship fund in the Raytown Educational Foundation, and the first scholarship disbursements will be made in 2021. Sixty graduates from the class contributed to this fund with a lead gift from classmate Terry Pickett.

Activities currently planned for the reunion include a tour of the high school followed by a Friday night football game at the Raytown South High School Stadium and a Saturday evening celebration at Stonehaus Farms Winery.
